

ARE YOU IN? MBA FUTURE LEADERS AND YOUNG GUN INTERNS

“Learning the real deal, beyond case studies and books”

The most difficult thing about acquiring knowledge is the practical application thereof. The second most difficult thing about the time honored tradition of knowledge acquisition is the industry in which that is done...

Eventerprise.com is an early stage technology company where outdated traditions have no place and where flexibility is our forte. We're not entrenched in an aging market, so disruption is our motto. This is the perfect place for MBAs to master their art, and interns to get a taste of what a real business is like.

Eventerprise is a globally focused, but locally relevant online match-making portal that helps event hosts (anyone throwing an event of any kind – from large scale international conferences to 21st birthday parties) find the most relevant peer-reviewed event suppliers and services – anywhere in the world.

We're currently based in the 'Silicon Valley of Africa', Cape Town, home to revolutionary early stage start-ups, and we're thriving – and we would like you, current MBA's and interns to thrive right along with us.

MBAS // Future Leaders:

To date we have been fortunate enough to have collaborated with MBA students from leading universities around the world.

“What strikes me most, looking back over my time working with Eventerprise, is the way that every decision affecting the company today, every turn on the road to each new feature roll-out, was weighed against the future... Eventerprise gives you the ability to make something real and lasting. It gives you the tools to bring perfection to life.” – Phillip Thompson (U.S.A)

We're incredibly proud to have been associated with some amazing interns in the past – they are our extended family. Here's what they had to say:

“Guys thank you so much for the lovely words, you made me cry! I really loved working at Eventerprise and I'll miss you. I really learned a lot from all of you and I promise I'll visit the HQ one day when I'm back in Cape Town.”

– Julia Reijers (Netherlands) – Eventerprise Young Gun, Cape Town, April 2016

“Dear Charlie and Götz, Before I go I just wanted to let you both know what an amazing time I had at Eventerprise. Honestly, I could not have asked for a better internship. I learned (and am still learning) so much and I really feel part of the Eventerprise team (or as Götz would say T.E.A.M). It kind of felt like I had two temporary dads here in Cape Town while my own one wasn't in the neighbourhood haha. I really loved every second of it! I will not only miss Eventerprise a lot but also the two of you! (yes, even you Götz despite the terrible German jokes). Eventerprise is a great company, with great people, doing great things. And who knows maybe I'll be back in a couple of months! So I don't want to say goodbye, I will just say a see you later!”

– Tinka Schreurs (Netherlands) – Eventerprise Young Gun, Cape Town April 2016

Where you decided to hang your hat will dictate a lot about where you hang it in the future. If you're up for it, we'd be honoured to have your hat hanging alongside ours.
